Coming Home

By Elam Stoltzfus, Caretaker of the Homestead

Well, we survived another winter here at the Homestead. We had several beautiful snow falls but no big blizzard this year. As an Amish boy, I remember several big snowstorms blanketing our dairy farm in Elverson with snow. I recall the big snow drifts, staying home from school, sledding down the hills, lots of ice skating and the work to feed the livestock.

Here are some of our highlights from the winter/early spring season:

On the evening of December 11th, my wife Esther and I hosted the B.A.R.N. (Berks Ag Resource Network - Farm to Table) winner for the summer BARNopoly game. Annie Lanscek, the winner of the competition, brought along her husband and three other couples to celebrate this special evening meal in the stone house. All the food was provided by BARN members. It was an honor for us to host the supper. Esther provided a special chef's touch in preparing the food. It most likely has been over 40 years since a family or friends sat around a table for a meal in the old house. We made new friends and made history for the Stoltzfus Homestead.

Over the Christmas season, our family also made history here at the old house. It's been about 250 years since Nicholas & Anna Elizabeth Stoltzfus would have sat at a table to eat a meal in the historic homestead and about 210 years since any of the Stoltzfus family would have been served food in the stube (living room) in the Homestead. On this evening, we celebrated a Christmas supper, had a prayer led by my son Nic, and reminisced what life may have been like here for the Stoltzfus family in the 1700s. It was a special experience to see lights in the house again, smoke curling out of the chimney, hearing laughter around the table, saying prayers, eating food together, and making memories.

We are close to having the small apartment in the upstairs of the barn ready for rental, and the plan is to begin renting it on AirBnB after the auction in May. This AirBnB will provide an income to support the Homestead, something we have not had before. Here's some of the work that volunteers have done to improve the small apartment over the past few months: we added a the small space in the back room to be included in the bedroom, installed a shower in the upstairs bathroom, added a new exterior doorway to provide a private entryway to the apartment. In addition, painting the trim, the doorways, and several walls adds a welcoming atmosphere to the barn apartment. The small apartment upstairs and the caretaker's apartment downstairs will both be open for visitors to tour during the auction.

In the old stone house, we removed the two upstairs closets and plan to have some of the rooms replastered and painted this summer. Our goal is to have the downstairs look as close as possible to what the house may have looked like when the Stoltzfus family lived there. For the upstairs, our goal is to have historical exhibits for education and interpreting the site. Key things we want to share with the public include our Anabaptist religious heritage, Amish immigration from Europe to Berks County in the 1700s, and colonial-era farming practices.

In the past month, we have been working to prepare for the annual benefit auction on May 7th. We look forward to this homecoming event for Stoltzfus descendants and a chance for folks to reconnect to their heritage (and eat some great homemade Amish food). This event feels as much like a reunion as an auction.

The vision that we have for Stoltzfus descendants is to provide a place for everyone to come home, learn, and experience our Anabaptist journey and reconnect to our rich heritage.

Funds are needed to pay for the remodeling-replastering of the two interior rooms in the historic house that have never been completed with the restoration. Restoring the walls and ceiling will protect the house from further deterioration. As we give more public tours and bring young school students into the old house, it's important to showcase the colonial lifestyle of the 1700s. Your support will help tell the legacy of the Stoltzfus story and our Anabaptist history.

Sunday, May 8, 2022 - 6:30 PM Benefit Music Concert

Conrad began playing in local bands in his hometown, Gordonville, PA when he was in high school. By the time he was twenty he was fronting the band and playing original music.

His unique style as a guitar player and songwriter draws from a wide range of influences from Don Williams to Buck Owens to Tom Petty. Conrad will be performing with a four piece professional band.

Dave Reinwald performs for many groups in the Berks County area.

Dave loves to sing from many different genres of music, including traditional and contemporary Christian, rock oldies, John Denver, and original material.

Dave and his wife Jackie have been married for 13 years and have a beautiful daughter named Sarah. Dave has been the Pastor at Kissinger's Church in Wyomissing for the past 11 years.

Along with being a pastoral couple, they truly love to bring joy and hope to others through music.

Two old closets in the upstairs rooms were removed. These two closets were added in the late 1800s or early 1900s, not part of the original rooms. The removal provides room for more wall space to showcase interpretive material and educational lessons. The walls need touch-up plaster and repair.
